Kendall, Attorney for Overseas National Airways, Inc., for classification of a series of documents relating to Saturn and ONA intervention in the Civil Aeronautics Board hearing on the sale of Southern Airways. In brief, I told Representative Leggett that the request had been received and was under review. I noted that the prime matter for protection is the Agency involvement. Representative Leggett agreed and told me that the time press from his point of view relates to the Air Force contracts which will be under final determination in the next several days. I told Representative Leggett that I would check the matter and be back in touch with him tomorrow morning.
25X1	5 JGO) Met with Dorothy Investigations Subcommittee staff, who asked me t case for Senator Jackson. The Senator is most int given a proper review and in the event of unfavoral that as much time as possible be allowed the individently ment arrangements.	terested that the case be ble final determination
